From the Potentate

Nobles, we just held two of our biggest events for the year. Many of us went on the Potentate's Cruise to Mexico and had an absolute blast. The cruise made three stops throughout the week in Puerto Vallarta, Mazatlán, and Cabo San Lucas. The first couple of days at sea were relaxing at first but quickly turned into a contest to see who could complete their drink package each day. While I consider myself a pretty fun guy, I have to admit that I never came close to the assigned number on any day, although I do want to assure my friends that I gave it a shot. We spent most of the first couple of days getting our bearings on the ship and figuring out where and when to meet our friends. On our first stop, many of us went on a Tequila tasting that took us to two different distilleries. The excursion was excellent and the information was really interesting. The companies produced some excellent spirits and they certainly shared plenty of it with us. Each place poured six shots of different tequilas for us to sample, so at the end of the tour, we were all ready for some water and a nap. Our second stop took us to Mazatlán where we took a tour of the city and the area highlights including cliff diving. The tour then stopped for lunch in a resort area where our group decided to eat at the Shrimp Factory. After settling in for a couple of beers, we quickly determined that the excursion was not very good and that we would skip the remainder of the tour to be able to extend our stay at the restaurant. The tour company was not pleased, but our group was overly excited, and after our lunch, we caught a cab back to the ship and we sang really bad 80's songs the entire way. Our final stop was in Cabo, and we decided to spend our limited time at a local restaurant and bar on the beach called "The Office." We started with an excellent breakfast and libations and then things took a turn for the worse (or better, depending on your perspective). It seems that the entire group bought into the philosophy that you can't drink all day if you don't start in the morning...it turned out to be all day! That is all I will say about Cabo except this; you should have been there.

Our next big event was the Potentate's Ball held at the Orleans Hotel and Casino. It was a really nice event with plenty of fun to be had. The fun started on Friday afternoon as we had a hospitality suite open in the Stardust Room. I was up enjoying the company for a couple of hours and then Darcy and I went to dinner with our out-of-town guests including the Potentate of Kerak Shrine and his officers in attendance. On Saturday, Good and Bad Dan's (you decide which is which) had the hospitality room open in the early morning for coffee and pastries. We spent most of the morning and early afternoon visiting with guests until we had to get ready for the ball. The Ball was a joint event with Zelzah and Kerak Shrines. It turned out to be a very fun event and I would like to thank everyone who assisted in making it a success. The dinner was excellent as always at the Orleans and the dancing was even better. I can tell you all that I brought my A game to the dance floor that night. I'm not saying that I was John Travolta in Saturday Night Fever or Patrick Swayze in Dirty Dancing, but I will say that I was probably a little better than both...just a little.

In April, we have the Aviator's Baseball game on the 8th. There are still spaces available, so please go to our website and book your spots before they are sold out. Remember, being a Shriner is about having fun, so come out and join us on some of our events and activities.

I wish you and your families a wonderful April and a happy Easter. I look forward to seeing you all at one of our many upcoming functions. Love to you all.

Fraternally,

David Bechtel, Potentate

I attended my first Shrine Recorders Association training session. This session was a joint session with the Shrine Treasurers Association. It was a jam-packed two and one-half days of presentations, information, and training on the use of WebFez as well as some training on QuickBooks. To say my brain was inundated is an understatement. I am now working with the office staff to ensure we are identifying requirements and reports to ensure we are meeting the expectations of Shriners International.

We continue to make improvements in the office layout and functionality of the office. We want to make the office a functional entity while making it a pleasant place for our customers. Mrs. Wise is organizing and improving the practices used in serving our child patients and their families. Mrs. Rodriguez continues to impress and take on more responsibilities to ensure that our Nobles and their family's needs are met in a timely fashion. Our IT guru, Noble Jacob Lewis, is constantly working on improvements to our web-based footprint and to make it easier for our Nobles to utilize this platform to conduct business with the Shrine.

We had a great turnout for the Henderson St. Patrick's Day parade. It is so great to see many of our Nobles out there participating in the parade. We had members from the Legion of Honor Unit, Clown Unit, Flivvers Unit, Motor Patrol Unit, and members from the Boulder City Shrine Club Mini-Car Unit, Henderson Shrine Club, and Roadrunner Shrine Club. Hope that this effort by our Units and Clubs continues and even grows throughout this parade season.

As we move into April and some warmer weather, I will be continuing to try and improve the appearance of the Eastern Village Shopping Center. I am working closely with our Security Patrol and the Security Monitoring Company (Cameras) to reduce the amount of unwanted traffic on our premises and to make it a safer place for the customers of our tenants, our patients and their families, and our Nobles and their families. I am also working with the company that does the cleanup of the parking lot and area around the building to ensure we keep things clean. We will be having the building sidewalk power cleaned again and plan to make this cleaning a part of our regular maintenance around the building to ensure things look good and are clean.

If you have thoughts about how to improve our building and improve the safety of this area for everyone, please feel free to contact me. I will be more than happy to raise these issues with the Board of Directors, the Trustees, and the appropriate committee. After all, this is our facility and the better it looks and operates the more likely it is that we will be able to persuade Master Masons and their families to join us in our philanthropy.

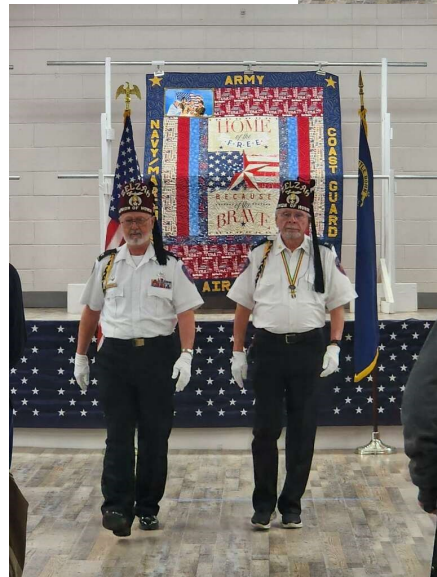

Fraternally yours,

Alan L. Wise, P.P.
Recorder/Property Manager

Chief Rabban, having fun in the Mexican sun. The ship was a good sail and smooth as silk. Looking forward to the US as no speaka Spanish. If you ever have the time and can afford it, you should take a cruise, even if you go on your own. Met a lot of new friends, and have not seen any of the Shriners except on the third day. The only problem was the trip was very short.

Always keep your God, Family, and job before Masonic events. As we could not do anything without the support of family.

Noble Michael Clark, Chief Rabban

Howdy Cuzzins and Non-Cuzzins:

If you have a minute log into

HTTPS://InternationalShrineHillbillies.com

Read about the Hillbillies and see what other Clans are doing. Also did you know we have a Hillbilly convention coming up in Green Bay, Wisconsin? It be sponsored by Packerland Hillbilly Clan 181.

Zelzah Clan 47 was proud to see in attendance at our February stated meeting the Imperial Hillbilly Guardian of the Still. "Cuz" Jody Vaughters from Possum Hollow Road, Wheelersburg, OH. He gave updated information that since the beginning (1969) Hillbilly Clans have given $13,300,000 to Shriners Hospitals and transportation funds. To date, Zelzah Clan 47 has donated $27,000 in keeping with a goal of $1000 a year during active years.

Last month our Pote I'll Sir "Cuz" David Bechtel climb them hills with Nobles Jay Salonga and Ryan Wright; and momma Pauline Grandis. They all proudly "Honored the Cob " and now wait to see who will follow .. affixing the title, "Cuz" to their names. Rumor has it that some Grand Lodge Officers may climb them hills. Let's see what happens. Also we welcome to Clan 47, Jennifer Smith, a duel Hillbilly momma from Clan 29, Rocky Mountaineers Grand and Glorious Gals, Al Kaly Shrine, Pueblo, Co. If you hold membership in another Hillbilly Clan please let me know.

The next gathering hopefully will be in May (TBA) ahead of the June 17th, Legion of Honor and Hillbilly annual Bingo Party. Always a fun event and open to all. See flyer for details. This event as all gatherings is dedicated to the children this philanthropy supports...that maybe that one child who may not walk today, he or she may walk tomorrow. "HONOR THE COB "

Unit and Club heads... please review your information on the website. The website is public/noble facing, please write your description for that audience (what do you do? why should they care? and why would someone join?). Please check out the calendar page to check your events/ meetings. Updates should be sent to the office. Event requests may be made online using a link on the calendar page, the password is "dino". Dues may be paid online at this time. Please see me at a stated meeting if you have questions or suggestions.

What a great March we had, the turnout at the Saint Patrick's Day Parade in Henderson was incredible and it was so good to see the Legion of Honor trailer full of riders as well as those supporting Henderson Shrine Club Noble Rokai who showed up with the club banner but no vehicle to put it on, until the Legion helped out putting it on their trailer. It was also good to see Motor Patrol supporting the parade, along with the Flivvers, and all the Nobles who showed up to make this parade a good one and get Zelzah out in the public eye. With over 7,000 people lining the route, we got a lot of positive comments and that's always a good thing as you never know where we will find our next new Noble. Also, a big shout out to Boulder City Shrine Club for their annual Corned Beef and Cabbage Dinner, the food was once again outstanding as Good Dan (and Bad Dan) let me know they started at around 6 in the morning to get the corned beef just right. We had a lot of good fellowships as the turnout was excellent considering the number of Nobles and Ladies on the Potentate's Cruise, that's one of the best things about these events the chance to talk with everyone while having a great time. If you have not been to an event at the Boulder City Shrine Club, you need to make the next one. Speaking of Boulder City Shrine Club, our Units and Clubs are an integral part of Zelzah, and if you're not active in one, I challenge you to start checking out what we have and find a Club or Unit to call your own. From smoking cigars to driving little cars, from Legion of Honor for our Nobles who are Military Veterans to Honoring the Cob with the Hillbillies, there is something out there for any Noble, you just have to go and check it out for yourself. As we move forward into the Spring, we will have plenty more events to keep us going and I hope to see all of you around the Shrine!

Brendan

What's been happening at Zelzah Shrine...

Hello, this is Han.

The bench is complete, and I couldn't be more proud of the way it came out in the end.

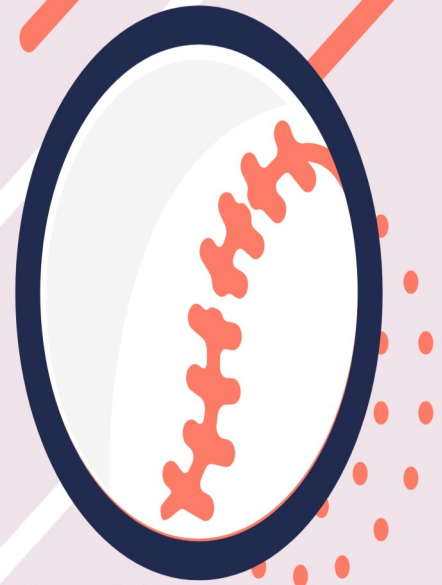

I am extremely grateful for the opportunity you have given me to work with you and progress my way further down the path toward Eagle.

Sincerely,

Han.

Let's get ready for: HELLDORADO!

Yes! It's Helldorado time in Las Vegas again and we are going to be in the parade! Save the date: May 13, 2023!

At this time I do not know what our position we will be but here are the details I do have:

1. Lineup will be at 9 am with step off at 10 am.
2. There will be four staging areas, all off 4th avenue. I will advise as soon as I am aware of which area we will start from. I will have printed maps available at the stated meeting.

All Shiners are invited to participate in the parade. Units and Clubs need to get their request slips signed by the potentate to protect you in case of emergency (we are covered by insurance both going to and participating in the parade).

The LOH van & trailer will leave the Shrine at 8:30 and welcomes those who want a ride to the parade.
