From the Potentate

Nobles,

Illustrious Sirs, Nobles all, I hope this finds you safe and rested up for the events scheduled for the rest of the year. It will be good to get back to our Masonic Labors. It has been a long hot summer, let's hope the heat eases up soon.

Precila and I scheduled a couple of events over the summer and were not impressed with the participation in them. We could have made money for our Shrine, we did make some, it was not very much. We were very disappointed with the turnout. I do thank all the Nobles that were able to be with Precila and I at the Fireside Barn Dinner Theater.

We have several things coming up for the rest of the year and hopefully turnout will be better. We have the annual Fish Fry, a birthday fundraiser, another golf tournament, as well as our annual trip to the Pahrump Fall Festival Parade with a POV to Weepah Shrine club and wine tasting, etc. Check out the flyers included in this month's newsletter for more information. We will have some raffle items and 50/50 most of these events.

There is plenty of time to bid on the George Washington framed prints that are left (minimum of $250 per print) and the rifle, shotgun, pistol raffle (if we do not reach 100 tickets sold, the weapons may be returned to the owner and money back to the raffle ticket holders) we are doing this to support our Zelzah Shrine General Fund.

Yours in Faith,

Michael Clark

FROM THE DESK OF THE RECORDER Alan Wise, P.P.

Welcome back Nobles and Ladies. I hope that you enjoyed your summer and that you were able to share time with those in your life. We are now getting back to the business of Zelzah Shriners, and I look forward to seeing you at our meetings and events.

We are kicking off September with our Annual Fish Fry on September 7th. This should be a good evening for fellowship, food, and some fun. We will have a Unit/Clubs/Divan meeting on September 10th and our Stated Meeting is scheduled for September 17th. Then on September 21st is the Pahrump Fall Festival parade and the Potentate's Official Visit to the Weepah Shrine Club.

In October we will conduct our annual Zelzah Shrine Ceremonial for all new Nobles who have joined us since last October. This ceremonial is open to families, and we encourage you to join us as this ceremonial will provide further insight to our families concerning the masonic organizations and the Shrine. If you joined us prior to October 2023 and did not have the opportunity to attend this ceremony last year and you would like to go through the ceremony please contact me at the office so I can add you as a participant in the ceremony. We encourage families to attend as a part of the ceremony is the fezzing of the Nobles going through the ceremony by a loved one.

I am still looking for volunteer drivers who would be willing to pick up Nobles who are unable to drive to Stated Meetings. Also, if you are a Noble in the greater Las Vegas area (Las Vegas, North Las Vegas, Summerlin, Henderson, or Boulder City) who would like to attend the Stated Meeting but can't drive to these meetings please contact the office (702-382-5554) so that we may plan to have you picked up and brought to the Stated Meeting and then returned home after the meeting.

Most should have already received their 2025 dues/fees notification from Shriners International. You may pay your 2025 dues/fees in several ways to include sending a check to the office, calling the office, and using your credit card, or by going online to the Zelzah Shrine webpage (ZelzahShrine.org) clicking of the "FOR MEMBERS" tab and then selecting pay dues.

As always your Zelzah Business Office is here to assist you.

Fraternally yours,

Alan L. Wise, P. P.

Howdy Cuzzins and Non-Cuzzins, In the June issue of the Zelzah News I spoke about going to the 42nd Annual Hillbilly Convention in Baltimore, MD sponsored by Clan 67 of Boumi Shrine. On Aug 7th with Possum Queen Cheri at my side and mascot RC racoon on my shoulder, we loaded on the air buggy. Four hours later, ahead of Hurricane Debby we arrived in hot, humid, sticky Baltimore. No dry heat there. Weather stayed in mid-80's and after 2 days Debby left, and it was generally nice except for humidity. Now some yes/no questions about the conference.

- * was it a good/fun conference? Yes
- * would you go back? Yes
- * would you recommend? Yes

This was my second Hillbilly conference. The first one was in Pigeon Forge, TN which was great. This Baltimore conference sponsored by Clan 67 of Boumi Shrine was equally good and amazing. Two highlights were Zelzah Shrine Clan 47 acquiring six associate members. Five from Clan 67 and one from Clan 55, Elf Khurafeh Shrine in Clio, MI. And second, our Clan 47's Possum Queen, Cuz Cheri, being asked to be a contestant for International Hillbilly Queen. She accepted, didn't win but stood proudly representing Zelzah Shrine Clan 47's Hillbilly Gals. The winner, Cuz Linda Rizzotto, was from Oil Patch Clan 69, Al Ma-laikah Shrine who will be the sponsor of next year's Hillbilly Convention in Los Angeles 7-10 Aug 25, Buena Park/Anaheim area close to Disneyland and Knotts Berry Farm. Hopefully we we'll have a good Clan 47 showing at this conference. Watch your emails for more information.

Our next gathering is Sunday, Sept 29, 1pm at the Shrine Center "potluck". We will be discussing a Saturday, Nov 30th, Hillbilly Event: A "Smokey Mountain Christmas/Holiday in the Pines" get-together.
